

The Romanian E-learning course, level A1-A2, is addressed especially to adults, those who wish to study the language from the beginner level and who are eager to get the basic competencies, to assimilate the main grammar rules, a minimum vocabulary of about 1500 words and the most used lexical expressions.

The lexical and grammar material is included in 16 units. The course is designed for 102 hours (covering 5 months in total) meaning 5-6 hours of studying per week. Each unit is divided in 5 sections: I. Listening; II. Vocabulary; III. Communication intentions; IV. Grammar; V. Reading. There are 4 intermediate tests and 1 final test.

At the end of the course the student will be able:

- to use the listened information in new communication situations;
- to understand the most common words and expressions related to family and concrete situations, in case of using a slow and clear speaking;
- to understand the key information from a simple and clear message or announcement, the essential ideas from announcements and simple, short and clear messages;
- to communicate at a basic level, with the condition that the speaker is prepared to repeat or to rephrase sentences and to accept help in case an idea is tried to be expressed;
- to assimilate 250 speaking models;
- to read short and very simple texts, to find specific information in the advertising materials, leaflets, timetables and to understand short and simple personal letters.

We wish you good luck!

Recommendations:

- Respect the accessing schedule of each unit - one unit per week. The accessing of more than one unit per week is welcome.
- Establish your most appropriate time of working.
- Learn gradually the grammar forms.
- Do all the tests on time.
- Consult the "Romanian language grammar in formulas and tables" (Gramatica limbii române în formule și tabele).
- Communicate with friends in Romanian.
- Use the new vocabulary in appropriate contexts.
